PURPOSE

It is universally acknowledged that nature has divided the eternal time into four eras (YUGAS) i.e. 'Satyug', 'Tretayug', 'Dwaparyug' and 'Kalyug'. The present era is Kalyug. As per the laws of nature, 'Satyug' - The Golden Era, is definite to follow 'Kalyug'. It therefore, becomes necessary that all of us enlighten ourselves about the approaching time i.e. 'Satyug', so that we are mentally geared up for this impending change and become competent to mould ourselves accordingly.

The establishment of Satyug Darshan Trust (Regd.)

is a step in this direction for realization of such natural objective.

Satyug Darshan Vasundhara Campus

The Guiding Force

The activities of the Trust are guided by the Holy Scripture - 'Satvastu Ka Kudarati Granth', which means - "Sacred Scripture of Satyug as revealed by the Nature".

It proclaims omnipresence of the Supreme Being with message:

" Discern nonetheless but me (Real/Eternal Self) is the 'Lord' "
" Only Ignorant say that the Lord is someone along with "

Accordingly, it further emphasizes that:

" 'Shabad' (i.e. the word of God) is our 'Guru' (i.e. Master) not the figure or image of any person "

This 'Granth' therefore preaches that, instead of different kind of prevalent systems of devotion, only one type of faith shall prevail universally, i.e. to inculcate the skill of equanimity and even-sightedness which would help in keeping our energy, wisdom and mind at the prime level forever. It makes one's faith strong enough to gain knowledge that one's Real Self in itself is the 'Lord' omnipotent, omnipresent and omniscient. This reveals the truth that in 'Satyug' oneness shall prevail. Instead of the silent repetition of the mantra or the name of any deity by way of devotion or by worshipping or by chanting of hymns, one shall always remain in the state of Meditation. In 'Satyug', each one would be a lover of truth having high integrity and uniform vision and would love to live in harmony. Further, the natural science would make the people of 'Satyug' so enlightened that they would become spiritually capable of producing any thing technically and skillfully with brilliance. Therefore, to become a symbol of equanimity and even-sightedness one ought to have an unflinching self- confidence and firm faith in God with one's divine eye focused on the embodied spirit i.e. eternal light. All these virtues are essential for universal brotherhood for keeping harmony and peace, besides performing one's worldly duties selflessly, sincerely and faithfully to attain salvation.

It declares, that each one of us should know and remember that: -

"The day is about to come when 'Kalyug' will retreat That day is about to come 'Sajanji', that day is about to come"

'Satvastu ka kudarti granth' has not only comprehensively described the past and the present state of affairs of the Universe, but has also forecasted in detail about the constitution of 'Satyug' i.e. fundamental principles, according to which spiritual, mental and physical conduct of a person shall be governed in 'Satyug'.

- It contains perfect knowledge, verified and verifiable truth to make every one wise enough to lead a peaceful life collectively, truthfully and religiously based on ethical principles i.e. strictly according to the rules of morality.
- To keep one's thought, action and speech in a pure and independent state i.e. free from any deformation, it suggests to remain firmly dedicated to His command. Further to keep our mind free from any pulsation, it is essential to root our existence in the divine source of Universe i.e. God.
- It calls upon each one of us to become 'Sajjan' in the real sense i.e. a person having a spirit of gentleness, which is essential to live in a divine manner.
- It prohibits one from being in the state of depression, weeping, lamenting or negative thinking in any moment or circumstance.
- It narrates reasons for degeneration of morality in mankind over various 'yugas' or eras and shows the way ahead for mankind and society to uplift themselves from their current ethical and morally deteriorated state. It has also mentioned troubles, which befalls upon one as the result of one's own deeds. It inspires one to eradicate selfishness and pride i.e. agitated state of mind, and transform one from the restless 'Kalyug' temperament to a tranquil and stable 'Satyug' disposition.

It is a study of mankind and human affairs viz-a-viz spirituality, with an intent to reduce human sufferings and to improve life specially by social and spiritual reforms collectively.

DHYAN KAKSHA – THE SCHOOL OF EQUANIMITY AND EVEN-SIGHTEDNESS - A SYMBOL OF ONENESS

In the midst of calm, serene and pollution free campus, the magnificent Dome-shaped, School of Equanimity & Even-sightedness, is an unprecedented and unique architectural marvel, surrounded by a water body.

Main gate of Dhyani Kaksha, is preceded by seven other gates. These seven gates are symbolic of humane virtues i.e. contentment, endurance, truthfulness, righteousness, equanimity, selflessness & benevolence respectively. The purpose of these sequential gates is to help a person introspect the level of virtues needed to become a real human being.

As we all know that meditation is the only spiritual tool to liberate the mind from ignorance, illusion and evil instincts so from this school of Equanimity & Even-sightedness, the science of inner dimensions will be taught through the process of meditation i.e. a way by which one could always remain in one's natural state of pure being in all its splendour.

For the knowledge of all, the school is meant for all, no one has any right on it. Here, there is no master or disciple, neither is any figure or deity to worship. It is the pre-eminent source of light and true knowledge from where the lesson of humanity would be taught to entire human race. The salient feature about this school is that there is no age limit or entry fee, neither there is any restriction based on caste, colour, creed, riches, poverty etc. For Self-Realisation and to become a good human being, one has to shed ignorance acquired through worldly knowledge to accept humanity as basic 'Dharma', i.e. an inherent divine virtue. Only such being can gain access to this school. From this school, beings would acquire the skill of Equanimity and Even-sightedness, which is the foundation of constitution of 'Satyug', according to which one would be able to learn and practice 'Sajan-bhaav' i.e. feeling of oneness towards one and all in their conduct and behaviour. In this way, primordial cultural heritage of India i.e. 'Satyugian' morals and code of conduct would be propagated from this school. This would enable beings to live life in unity, love, harmony, fraternity and peace. Besides this, skilful efforts would be made to imbibe contentment & endurance so that the being would be able to follow a path of righteousness and truthfulness selflessly. Most importantly, this school has been established for versatile development of families, societies, countries and world as a whole to achieve happiness, tranquillity and prosperity.

SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT

The Trust infuses spiritual enlightenment among its members by way of various kinds of programs and camps, with 'Satsang' being the prime among them. Through this process, stress is being laid with reasoning, to switch over to one faith i.e. to hold the values of equanimity and even-sightedness firmly and skillfully. Then practice it on daily basis to attain maturity. This is considered essential to adhere to the principles, as contained in the 'Granth', for imbibing strong moral and spiritual values in life. For general information, it is added that 'Satsang' is held on every Tuesday and Sunday at 'Vasundhara' and its over hundred other branches, spread across the country and abroad.

Besides 'Satsang', the 'Gade Ka Yagya' is celebrated in the month of January after observing forty days of worship called as 'Chalisa'. During these forty days, celibacy and chastity is observed and abstinence from physical and worldly desires is practiced to attain the true knowledge of the Supreme Self.

One is required to keep one's heart and mind in the pure and pious state to become entitled to wear 'Gada'. This 'Gada' is worn on the wrist of the right hand by the deserving persons.

'Gada' is the divine ornament/weapon i.e. the mace or club of 'Lord Shri Vishnu', which was given by Him as a weapon of peace and power to 'Lord Shri Hanuman'. The 'Gada' acts as a defensive sheath for the wearer as it is not only capable of keeping one's heart and mind away from lust, anger, greed, attachment and egoism but also to firmly uphold the virtues of equanimity, contentment, endurance, righteousness and truthfulness.

We can say that this 'Yagya' is meant to attain a virtue capable of keeping one's heart and mind free from worldly pleasures and mental disorders and thus firmly uphold human values essential to live peacefully. It is also a firm step towards salvation.

The auspicious day of 'Akhand Hawan' is celebrated in the month of February, when each one is supposed to do charity within one's means and ability and transform oneself to become benevolent.

Lastly, the main congregation is held every year during the month of 'Chaitra' (March/April) when the Trust celebrates 'Ram-Navami' as 'Yagya-Utsava' which continues for four days. During this celebration, thousands of devotees, followers, members and other people from all parts of India and abroad representing all sections of the society attend in order to get spiritually enlightened. On this occasion each one is supposed to assess one's own past year's progress independently and identify/ understand further changes required to improve oneself to achieve the real goal of life.
